Make-A-Wish® Colorado Sends 4-Year-Old Abby to Disneyland to Meet Elsa

GRAND JUNCTION, CO - Make-A-Wish® Colorado is granting a magical wish for 4-year-old Abby, who will be traveling to Disneyland to meet her favorite princess, Elsa. Abby, who is battling leukemia, will depart for her dream adventure from the Grand Junction Regional Airport (GJT) on Monday, September 29.

The Grand Junction Regional Airport is honored to partner with Make-A-Wish Colorado to ensure Abby's experience is magical from the moment she steps out of her front door. This special send-off will include personalized touches to celebrate Abby and her journey to the happiest place on Earth.

Media Coverage Invitation:

Local media outlets are invited to cover Abby's heartfelt send-off at the Grand Junction Regional Airport.

- Arrival Time: Please arrive by 9:00 AM on Monday, September 29

About Make-A-Wish® Colorado

Make-A-Wish Colorado creates life-changing wishes for children with critical illnesses. Research shows children who have wishes granted can help build the physical and emotional strength they need to fight a critical illness. Founded as one of the first Make-A-Wish chapters in 1983, Make-A-Wish Colorado has granted more than 7,000 wishes to children across the state.
